Iri.

WHA -
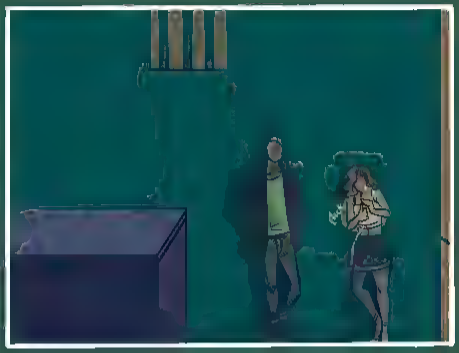
Oh, shit Dean you scared me, asshole.

Close

What're you doing here - Wait, nevermind, let's go out back.



So, how're things going?

He's moving out next week. All his shit's packed, I've even been helping him with it.

Shit, the wedding's next week?

I can't sleep, I spend every waking moment thinking about it

You could just tell him -

Don't you think
I've thought of that?
Don't you think I've run through every goddamn
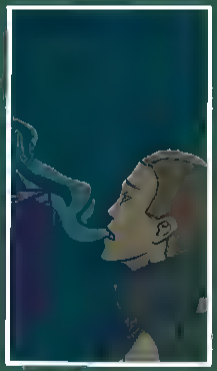
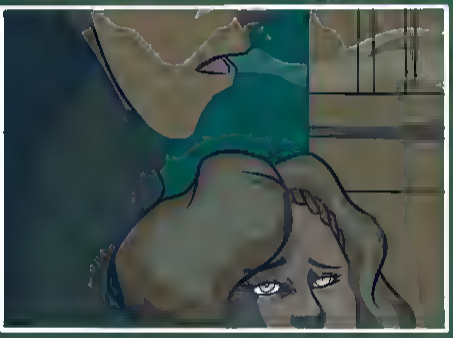
scenario in my head
50 times?

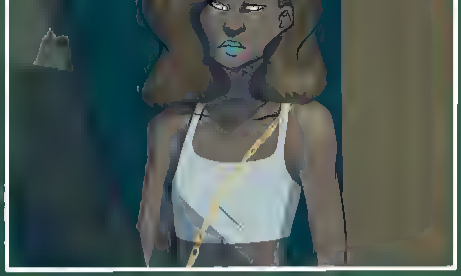


And let me tell you something. None of them end well.

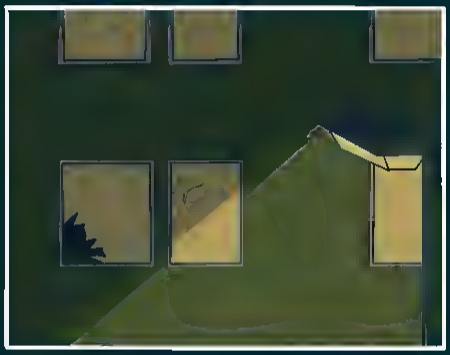


Your place?

Y-yeah, I mean, if you're sure...



So.



How did you figure out I was a witch?

The hag stone, mostly.

Creatures look like their true selves through it, and you look like a witch, so.

Also, you don't exactly try to blend in. Like, even Trevor thinks you're weird.

Ha! What can I say? They don't exactly teach us that shit.

Teach? What

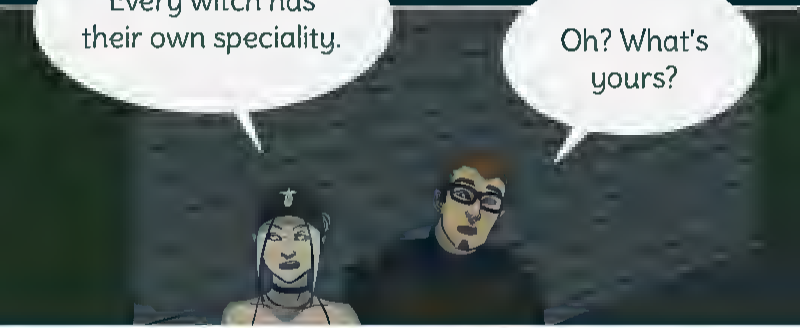
How to be a total pompous dick, mostly.

Sometimes spells, sometimes potions etc.

Every witch has their own speciality.

do they teach you?

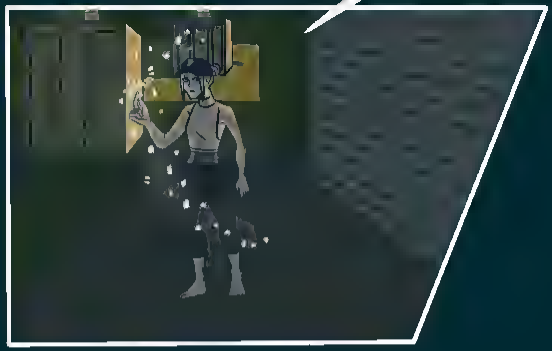
Oh? What's yours?

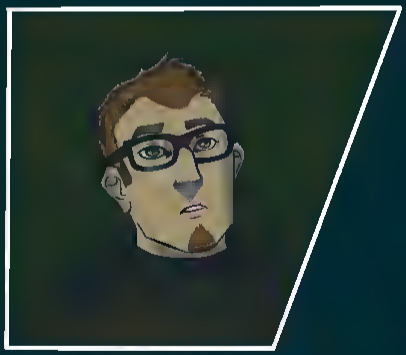


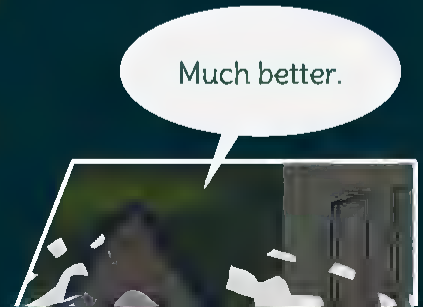
Me?
Everything.

Sorta why I'm lying low for the time being.

Actually, speaking of...







Much better.

Now remember, stay cool. Don't talk to anyone, but if anyone asks, you're a witch.

What is this place?
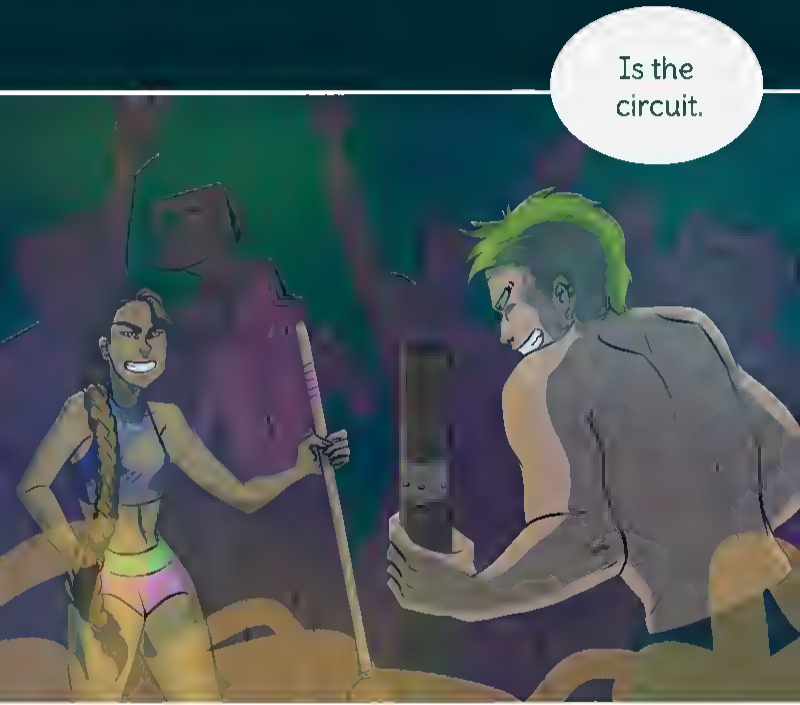
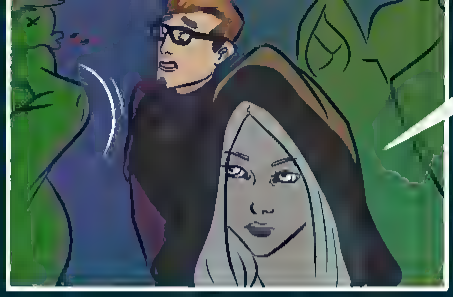
This, my friend...



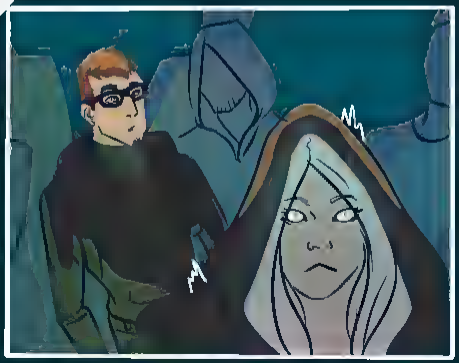
Is the circuit.

So like drag racing...but with brooms?
That's...actually a pretty good description, yeah.



Well, well, well.

Look who decided to show up.



You've got a lot of nerve, showing your face here.

Come to take on the reigning champion?

Honey, you know

the only reason you're champion is by default.

Just 'cause the queen leaves doesn't mean the runner up earned the crown.

Say that to my face after you beat me.

Shay...the mission...

If you think you can win, of course.

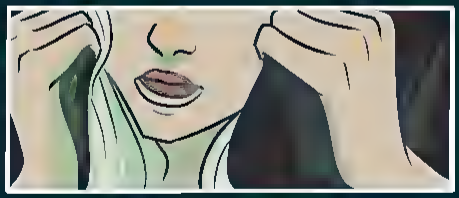
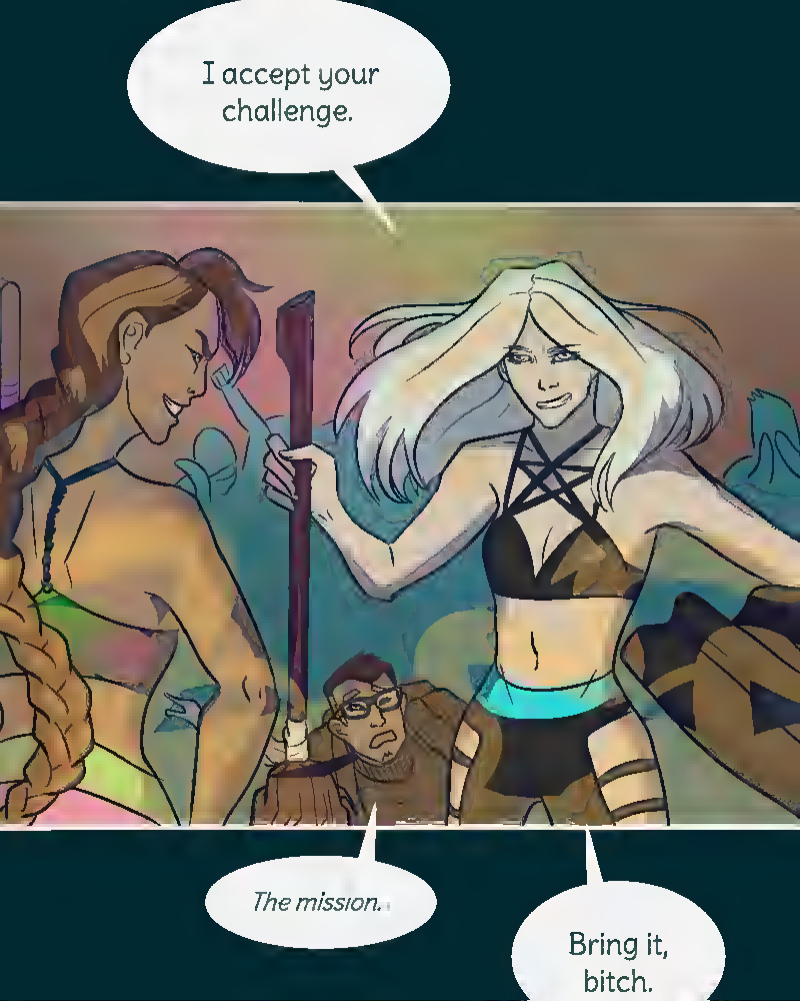
Fuck off, I'm busy.
Y'all hear that? Even the Shattered Spirit is scared to take me on!



The Shattered Spirit –

- Is scared of no one.



I accept your challenge.
The mission.
Bring it, bitch.
